

Grants for 2014

Carnamah Historical Society –

for an online biographical dictionary of Coorow, Carnamah and Three Springs, including integration with Australian Curriculum education resources

The York Society Research and Archive Centre –

to purchase electronic research materials

History Council of Western Australia – for employment of an executive assistant

G. C. Bolton –

to assist publication of a biography of Sir Paul Hasluck

Stefano Girola –

to assist publication for Bishop Rosendo Salvado's "Report to Propaganda Fide" (1900) on the Benedictine mission of New Norcia

Bobbie Oliver –

to assist e-publication of a history of Locomotive Engine Drivers', Firemen's & Cleaners' Union of WA

Chris Owen –

to fund images in his publication, 'Every mother's son is guilty'; Policing the Kimberley Frontier of Western Australia

Tiffany Shellam –

to fund images in her publication, 'Archiving the Archipelago: encounter, mediation and history on the north-west coast of Australia

Fran Taylor –

to assist publication of her local history, Bridgetown Book 2